

Health Safety and Environment (HSE) Policy

Energy Researchers Ariana (ERA) company concern for healthy people, safe workplace, environment, improvement of the quality product, society and customers needs as a core value. We believe that good HSE performance is an integral part of organization management and lead to efficiency, quality and profitable business.

Vision;

No accident, no harm to people and no damage to the environment

Aim;

Sustainable development by adhering to the following principles:

- Prevention of accidents, injuries and pollutions to improvement risk management program under normal, changing and critical conditions
- Compliance with all applicable HSE legislation in anywhere of world we work
- Promotion HSE culture, transparent and constructive communication system among managers, staff and stakeholders
- Monitor, evaluate and continually improvement HSE performance through the standards
- Providing essential training to our employees to empower HSE culture
- Requiring contractors to apply HSE requirements accordance with policy
- Recording and communicating HSE performance throughout the organization
- Reduction of waste and conservation of resources and energy
- Effectiveness monitoring of HSE management system

You and I have a common responsibility to care for the Health, Safety and Environment.

We will integrate our HSE practices, standards and goals into our global business plans in a manner that assures consistent and effective implementation of our HSE policy.

MIRSABER SHIRVANI

Managing Director

June 2021